- 1) Wall art. 2) Book inclusion. 3) Website gallery.
- 4) Online campaign from 4/15-5/16/2023.

Submissions should follow our "Creative Focus", address at least one of our "Themes" and work towards our "Goal".

- Creative Focus: "Love your fellow as yourself."
- Themes: Hope ~ Jewish Understanding ~ Tzfat ~ Maynard Spirituality & Beyond ~ Unity ~ Positivity ~ Diversity ~ Creation.
- Goal: To create a dialog, so individuals of varied opinions can shake hands with a few less acts of antisemitism and a few more acts of loving-kindness.

Art submission for exhibit may be for sale or marked not for sale.

- Artwork should be submitted between February 1 and March 31, 2023.
- Work will be accepted until April 15th, but an application MUST be submitted by March 31.
- Work will be available online for prepurchase from April 15 - May 16 (2 days before the reception). Artists will each have a gallery on JewishHope.org/Tzfat-Everywhere/ where their work will be showcased.
- Artists will receive 75% of the listing price for sales. The 25% covers administrative costs and transactional fees.
